HOW DOES PATHWAYS SUPPORT WORK?

We provide case management that is tailored to each individual client.

We coordinate, negotiate, advise, mentor and encourage young people to provide them with the highest possible chance of success.

With each client, we identify existing skills and career interests, as well as any barriers to engaging in education, training or employment.

We work with other services including; health, housing, welfare, youth centres, indigenous or cultural groups, community services and refer young people as needed.

We focus on building confidence and boosting career aspirations while creating an understanding of real needs and expectations within the workplace.

Some of what we do:

- Create plans and set goals for transitioning into work or study
- Teach how to create professional resumes, cover letters and apply for jobs
- Provide financial assistance for general support and crisis support on a case by case basis
- Coach in preparing for interviews and teach job searching skills
- Assist with finding and enrolling into relevant courses
- Re-engage young people into Year 10, HSC or equivalent courses
